

2012 ICA Congress Australia

International Council on Archives
Brisbane, 20 – 24 August

ICA

Australian Government

NATIONAL ARCHIVES
OF AUSTRALIA

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

EASTICA no member no minasama
Konnichiwa

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

Brisbane, Australia

20th – 24th August 2012

Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

- Brisbane as the location
- Setting a date

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

- Planning
 - NAA as host institution, but who else should be involved?
 - Federal and State Archival institutions in Australia
 - Australian professional archival and information management Associations
 - ICA members in the Pacific and South East Asian area

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

- Committees Structure

Executive Committee

Steering Committee

Programme Committee

- Sub Committees

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

- A Climate of Change
 - The title reflects the changes and challenges archivists and information managers face in the 21st century
- Themes :
 - Sustainability
 - Trust
 - Identity

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

- Australia's unique contribution
 - Australia is one of the leading countries in developing innovative archival management, practice, policy and theory.
 - The Director-General of UNESCO has designated the National Archives of Australia as the laureate of the 2011 UNESCO/Jikji Memory of the World Prize for its work.

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

- Programme Structure
 - 3 days of Congress
 - 2 days of Business meetings and workshops
 - Keynote Speaker each Congress day
 - Talking Circles incorporated into Congress
 - Closing session each day of Congress to sum up the presentations of the day

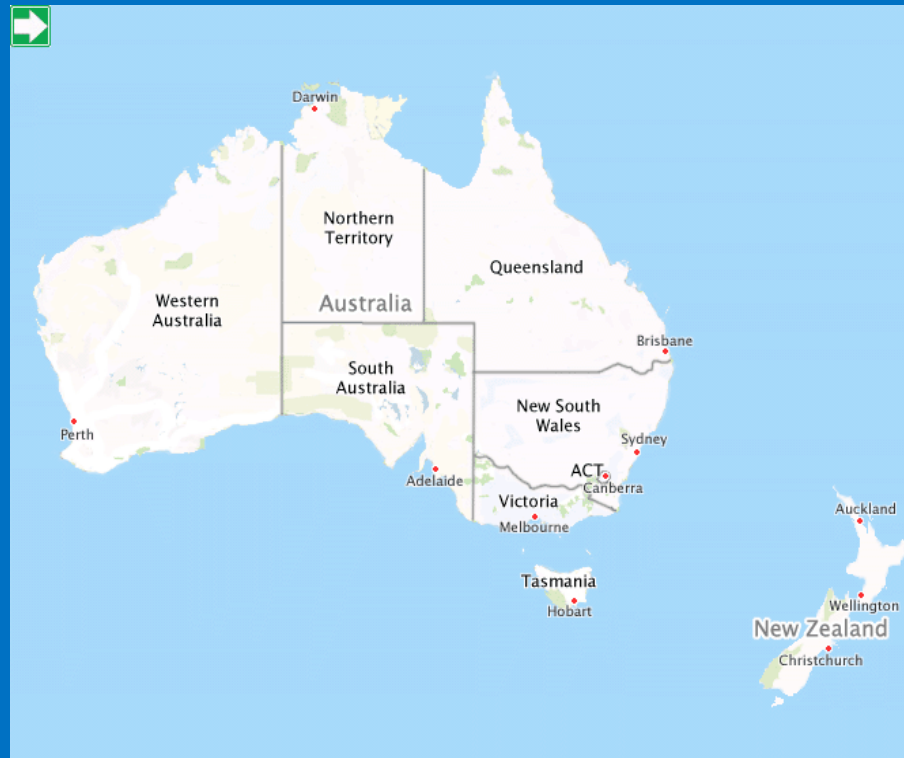

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

- Keynote Speakers
 - David Ferriero, USA Archivist
 - Judge Baltazar Garzon, Human Rights Jurist, Spain
 - John McMillan, Information Commissioner, Australia
 - Miriam Nesbit, Information Commissioner, USA

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

- Brisbane as a destination

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

- I invite you to join us in Brisbane, Australia, during August 2012.
- Be prepared to immerse yourself in discussing the vast challenges archivists face; and
- Be part of the vanguard that sets the direction for our future.

A Climate of Change: ICA Congress 2012

*See you in Brisbane
20 - 24 August!*

