

NAJ Online Archives Seminar
“Preservation and Conservation of Paper-based Archival Materials”

The National Archives of Japan (NAJ) will hold an online seminar to advance international collaboration of archival institutions inside and outside of Japan through information exchange and dialogue with international peers, and capacity building of professionals thereof.

Organized by: National Archives of Japan

Date and time: January 31, 2025 / 11:30-14:30 (Japan Standard Time)

Format: Online (Zoom webinar)

Language: English (with simultaneous interpretation in English and Japanese)

* Program schedule is attached.

Advance registration required.

Go to the registration form

Registration deadline is Tuesday, January 21, 2025 (23:59 Japan Standard Time).

Any queries can be directed to the International Liaison Team of the National Archives of Japan at kokusai@archives.go.jp.

Program schedule

Time (JST)	Program
11:30-11:40	Opening
11:40-13:20	Session 1: Preservation Management of Archival Materials in a Hot and Humid Environment Presentation: Tran Viet Hoa, Director of National Archives Center No.3, State Records and Archives Department of Vietnam Wiwi Diana Sari, Director of Archives Preservation and Protection, National Archives of the Republic of Indonesia Timoci Balenaivalu, Principal Archivist, National Archives of Fiji; President, PARBICA Comment: AOKI Mutsumi, Specialist in archives conservation and former Associate Professor at the National Institute of Japanese Literature ASABA Saho, Chief of Conservation Section, National Archives of Japan Discussion
13:20-13:30	Break
13:30-14:00	Session 2: Response to and Recovery from Water Damage to Archival Materials Presentation: Qahera binti Alian, Archivist, Consultation and Training Section, National Archives of Malaysia Brandon Oswald, Executive Director, Island Culture Archival Support; PARBICA member Comment: AOKI Mutsumi ASABA Saho Discussion
14:00-14:25	Q&A and wrap-up discussion
14:25-14:30	Closing